

THE Pennsylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freshest Advices Foreign and Domestick.

From Thursday, November 4. to Thursday, November 11. 1731.

PARMA, July 28.

PUBLICK Prayers are now put up in all our Churches for the Dutcheſs Dowager's ſafe Delivery. That Princeſs has done going abroad, and ſees but little Company in her Apartment.

Edinburgh, Aug. 2. We have ſeveral Accounts from the Country, of Loſſes by the Lightning on Saturday laſt; particularly at the eight mile Houſe near Pentland Hills, a Lad was kill'd and a Dog that ſtood by his ſide.

Aug. 3. We hear ſeveral Perſons were killed by the Thunder and Lightning, on Friday and Saturday laſt, the like whereof the oldeſt People do not remember to have heard or ſeen.

Aug. 5. Several melancholy Accounts are come to hand ſince our laſt, of Miſfortunes by the late Thunder and Lightning, particularly from Caldon near Traquare, one William Cluſhehn a Shepherd was kill'd in the Fields. From Gilmeton on Gallawater, that a Farmer and his Daughter, and a young Man were alſo killed. From Colroſs in Perthſhire, that a Servant Lad was killed, as he was going out with Dinner to the Herds. From Blackferd in that Shire, that two Men were killed near that Place. From Treacoldale, that 3 or 4 Perſons, ſome Horſes, black Cattle and Sheep were alſo killed. From Coupar in Fife, that a poor Man was killed within four miles of that Place.

Aug. 9. We hear from Dumblain, that four Men were kill'd in that neighbourhood on Saturday was ſe'nnight by the dreadful Thunder and Lightning of that Day.

Bologna, Aug. 7. Yeſterday the famous Midwife Frugnioni ſet out by ſpecial Orders for Parma, to aſſiſt at her Serene Highneſs's Delivery. Several Expreſſes have paſt by here of late, carrying to Vienna and other Courts, the very agreeable News of the Grand Duke's having concluded a Treaty with Spain, and made the ſerene Infante ſole Heir to his Dominions.

Parma, Aug. 8. The great Hall belonging to the Ducal Palace is made ready for the Lying-in of the Dutcheſs Dowager: One large Chamber is built in the middle thereof, for her Serene Highneſs, with ſeveral others round it for the Foreign Miniſters: On the 20th Inſtant her Highneſs compleats the 9th Month of her Pregnancy, computing from the 20th of January laſt, the day of the late Duke our Sovereign's Death, whereon the Dutcheſs declared herſelf two Months gone with Child. No leſs than 15 Couriers are kept in Readineſs, to carry the News of her Delivery to their reſpective Courts.

London, Aug. 12. Laſt Night a Committee of Council was held at the Cockpit, on ſome ſpecial Affairs relating to New-England.

Amſterdam, Aug. 14. We have Advice that the great Duke of Tuscany has agreed to receive Don Carlos and the Spaniſh Troops into his Dutchy, purſuant to the Treaty of Vienna.

Vienna, Aug. 15. His Excellency the Duke of Liria has deliver'd to the Count de Sinzen-dorf, Grand Chancellor of the Court, an ample Memorial, wherein the Infante Don Carlos ſolemnly proteſts againſt the Pregnancy of the Dutcheſs of Parma. 'Tis reckon'd a curious Piece, and well digeſted.

London Aug. 16. The Parliament is farther prorogu'd to Tueſday the ninth of November.

We hear that the Court has received from Berlin, a melancholy Account of a Duel fought there, between a Son of the King of Pruſſia's prime Miniſter, and a Nephew of General Diemar's, with theſe particulars, viz. that the former's Sword falling out of his Hand in the Engagement, while he was ſtooping to the Ground to recover the ſame, his Antagoniſt at one Blow ſever'd his Head from his Body, the Duelliſts fighting with two-edged Swords: The ſurviving Gentleman is put under Arreſt.

London, Aug. 17. On Saturday Evening the Hon. Eaſt India Company received Advice by their Purſers, of the ſafe Arrival of the Le-theuillier, Bridgwater, and Mary, off Dover; alſo the Prince William a little aftern of them, by whom we hear, that Augree the Pirate had taken the William, a rich Merchant Ship belonging to Bombay, and had cut all the Men to pieces.

On

On Friday last, a Litter of young Lions were whelp'd at the Tower, from a Pair of young ones whelp'd there about six Years since.

On Saturday last, the King, Queen, and all the Royal Family, together with great Numbers of the Nobility and Quality, hunted a Stag in Richmond new Park: In the midst of the Sport, Sir Robert Walpole's Horse fell with him just before the Queen's Chaise, and threw him in the Dust; but he was soon remounted, having received no manner of Hurt; and her Majesty order'd him to bleed by way of Precaution. When the Stag was just run down, the King commanded the Hounds to be call'd off.

Mr. John Peach, the King's Bottle-Groom, who is 100 and odd Years of Age, was a Hunting with their Majesties.

London, Aug. 20. Yesterday Sir Robert Walpole, together with several Persons of Distinction set out for Hampton Court where he will keep a publick Table 2 Days in a Week.

We hear that the Lord Cornbury is sent for home from his Travels.

Samuel Ogle, Esq; who had a Command in a Regiment in the Irish Establishment, is preparing to embark for Maryland, of which Province Lord Baltimore the Proprietor has appointed him Governor, in the Room of his Lordship's Brother the Hon. Benedict Leonard Calvert, Esq; who is returning home for his Health.

Custom-House, New-York, Nov. 8. Inward Entries.

Hall from Lewis on Delaware. Outward Entries, Lush for Curacao, Vanpelt for N. Carolina. Cleared, Griffith to New London, Todd to Jamaica, Burrows to Jamaica, Naismith to Curacao.

There are Letters in Town from London, via Boston, of the 24th of August, and some News Papers to that Day, in which is contained the new Treaty at large between the Emperor, the King of Great Britain, and the King of Spain, [to be inserted in our next.] The King of Prussia is reconcil'd to the Prince Royal his Son, to the inexpressible Joy of his Subjects. In the Treaty concluded between the King of Spain and the Great Duke of Tuscany, Don Carlos is to make his Residence at Florence, and be stiled Great Prince of Tuscany, and inherit all the Great Duke's Dominions after his Death, &c. From Venice of Aug. 18. they write, that the Dutchess of Parma's Pregnancy begins to be much suspected, and that the Symptoms thereof proceeded from some other Cause.

Custom-House, Philadelphia, Entred inwards. None.

Entred outwards.

Ship Rebecca, Mark Joice, for Barbadoes.

Brigt. Hannah, William Doveson, for New-Castle.

----- Pennswood, Peter Nihil, for Suranam.

Ship Diligence, Samuel Wood, for Lisbon.

Sloop Fish-hawk, Samuel Butler, for Cape May.

----- Two Brothers, Christopher Clymer, for St. Kitts.

Cleared.

Brigt. London-Hope, James Howel, to Salem.

Sloop Prosperous, James Philpot, to Boston.

----- Two Brothers, William Adams, to St. Christophers.

Buried in the City of New-York in a Week past, viz.

Church of England 9. Dutch Church 5. Presbyterians 1. In all Whites 15. Blacks buried, None.

Buried in the several Burying-Grounds of this City in a Week past

Church - - - - -	1.	} Strangers	Baptists - - - - -	0.
Quakers - - - - -	1.		Whites - - - - -	1.
Presbyterians - - -	1.		Blacks - - - - -	0.

Prices of the following Goods, Wheat 3 s. 3d. Flour 10 s. 7d. Midling Bread 12 s. Mixt ditto 10 s. 6d. Brown ditto 9 s. Rum 2 s. 11d. Mellasses 15 d.

Advertisements.

New-Castle, November 10. 1731.

THESE are to give Notice to all Persons whom it may concern, that the Currency of all the Bills of Credit of the Government of the Counties of New-Castle, Kent and Sussex on Delaware, dated the Fifteenth Day of March, 1726. did expire on the second Day of this Instant November; And therefore all Persons who have any of the said Bills of Credit, are desired to bring them to the respective Loan-Offices of the said Counties of New-Castle, Kent and Sussex, within Four Months from the Date hereof, where they may have them exchanged for other Bills; otherwise they must run the Risque of losing the same.

For BARBADOS,

THE Ship REBECCA, Mark Joice, Commander, will sail in Three Weeks. For Freight or Passage, agree with him at his Store in Water-street. Novemb. 4.

A NIGHT SCHOOL, kept in Water-Street, opposite to Mr. Lawrence's Store; where Writing, Arithmetick Vulgar and Decimal, with some Parts of the Mathematicks, are Taught, by John Lloyd.

For DUBLIN directly,

THE Snow LOWTHER, Joseph Fisher Master, will sail in a Fortnight: Any Persons that are enclined to take Passage for the above Port, may agree with said Master on board his Vessel now lying at Israel Pemberton's Wharff.

THIS is to give Notice to those Palatines who came Passengers in the Snow Lowther, and have not yet paid for their Passages, that they are required forthwith to pay to Joseph Fisher what is respectively due from them, or they may expect further Trouble. Nov. 11. 1731.

RUN away on the 19th of Oct. past from

Isaac Norris of Fairhill, a Servant Man named John Wood, a slender active Man, about Twenty-two Years of Age, his Hair cut off, a thin but lively Visage; born as he says at Birmingham in Great Britain, came a Servant from Bristol in 1730, is a Carpenter and Sawyer, and has been a Sailor, and had about two Weeks ago cut his Leg with an Ax above and on one Side his Instep; is well cloath'd, and has taken away much other, viz. A good Leather Jacket and Breeches with brass Buttons; a fine, but worn Sagathee Coat; several, perhaps 4 or 6 white and speckled Shirts; a Broadcloth Coat with no Cuff, a riding Coat; a new lightish-brown Drugget Jacket and Breeches; a pair of Duroy Breeches, the Puffs white Silk; a new fine Hat, a light brown Wig, a Cap, and as is suppos'd several other Things. Also a black trotting Gelding, about seven Years old, mark'd E on the near Shoulder, and a Notch in the far Ear, no White about him save a snip in his upper Lip; a good whole Skirt Saddle, Bridle, and Spit-Boots. Whoever shall take up the said Servant and Horse, and bring him to me, or secure him so that I may have them again, shall have Forty Shillings Reward, besides reasonable Charges paid, by Isaac Norris.

Lately imported, and to be sold by Robert Parkhouse, a choice Parcel of English CYDER, well pack'd in Hampers, Five Dozen in each, at Fifty Shillings per Hamper, on board the Ship Swift, at Mr. Fishbourn's Wharff.

ESCAPED from the Sheriff of Lancaster a Man named John Brown, alias Robinson, of middle Stature, very broad Shoulders, well set, forward and bold in Talking, and has a rogneish Look: Had on an old light colour'd Coat, brown Cloth Breeches very old, old Shoes, old Yarn Stockins, and an old Hat. Whoever secures him shall have Forty Shillings Reward, and reasonable Charges paid, by John Galbreth Sher.

PHILADELPHIA: Printed by B. Franklin and H. Meredith, at the New Printing-Office near the Market, where Advertisements are taken in, and all Persons may be supplied with this Paper, at Ten Shillings a Year.